THANK YOU, LORD

Just this once, Lord, I want to come to you with no problems, but simply to say, Thank You:

For your forgiveness when I fail

For the sheer joy of sleep when I'm terribly tired

For the silent strength of humility when pride overtakes me

For the justice of your laws when men are cruel

For the remedies for sickness when I am ill

For the simplicity of orderliness when I face confusion

For the assurance that you have made a place especially for me when I feel inadequate among my peers

For the joy of helping others when I see people in need

For the earthly evidences of your will when I'm trying to find out what life is all about

For the reality of your world, when I stray too far into fantasy

For the rightness of reasonableness when I panic too quickly

For the fun that refreshes when everything gets too serious

For the renewal in moments of silence when I'm dizzy being busy in a hectic world.

Thank you, Lord, for all these things. But most of all, thank you for your abiding presence that makes every day I live a day of thanks.

For That I Am Especially Thankful

During a harvest festival in India, an old widow arrived at her church with an extraordinarily large offering of rice—far more than the poor woman could be expected to afford. The itinerant minister did not know the woman well. But he did know that she was very poor and so he asked her if she were making the offering in gratitude for some unusual blessing. "Yes," replied the woman. "My son was sick and I promised a large gift to God if he got well." "And your son has recovered?" asked the minister. The widow paused. "No," she said. "He died last week. But I know that he is in God's care; for that I am especially thankful."
