Playing God

Mee Spousler in Aston, PA. tells how she was trying to put her three-year-old son to bed for a nap.

When she was unsuccessful, she put him in her bed and laid down with him to encourage him to rest. She fell asleep, but he didn't. When she woke up, she saw him sitting in a chair at the end of the bed, and asked, "Luke, what are you doing?"

"I'm playing God," he replied.

"Playing God?" she asked.

"Yes," he said. "I'm watching over you while you sleep."

Children understand more than we do sometimes. God IS watching over us. Jesus gave that promise here in talking about the coming of the Holy Spirit. Not only will God watch over us but through the presence and reminder of the Holy Spirit we will be reminded of what it means to "Love Jesus and keep His commands." And God will help us create the environment of love, grace, faith and security that we need for our homes today. Our challenge is to listen to the Holy Spirit and to trust Christ.

Don't Ignore Jesus

Humor from Christian Globe

A concerned little girl approached her father one day and said, "Daddy, I just don't believe it's right to ignore Jesus."

The father, more than a little confused, answered, "I agree with you. We shouldn't ignore Jesus. But what made you think of that?"

"Well, it's that Christmas song we sing at church. You know, the one that says, 'O come let us ignore Him'."

Unanswered Prayer

Anonymous

The preacher's 5 year-old daughter noticed that her father always paused and bowed his head for a moment before starting his sermon. One day, she asked him why.

"Well, Honey," he began, proud that his daughter was so observant of his messages. "I'm asking the Lord to help me preach a good sermon."

"How come He doesn't answer it?" she asked.
